

MAKING A RECOVERY

Making a recovery,

Is something I've done,

In the long run,

I have won.

It's not a cure,

But a place to be,

Everyone has,

Their own recovery.

Mind is continuous,

Everyday,

I've found the path,

That leads the way.

I have a life,

I can call my own,

Taking a drive,

Or talking on the phone,

To work my job,

To write a poem,

With my recovery,

I have a home.

So recovery is,

A reality for me,

Day be day,

A victory.

DYLAN ABRAHAM